DEDICATION

In order that we may show in a small way our deep appreciation of their work among us, the Lantern, 1933, is dedicated to Miss Sarah V. Clement and Miss Katharine Clement. Their service in the class room, their sincere interest and loyalty in our student organizations, and their sympathy with us in our individual problems have led us to think of them not only as instructors, but as friends.

EPWORTH HALL

Dr. R. E. Womack

The years of Lambuth's existence have been a period of unceasing labor for our President. The dreams, the high ideals, which our Alma Mater would leave enshrined in the hearts of her students, are but reflections of his character; and those who have fully felt his influence can not but express the sincerest admiration and appreciation for Dr. Womack.

ALMA MATER

HAIL TO LAMBUTH, OUR LAMBUTH BELOVED,
SCHOOL OF IDEALS, OF SUNLIGHT, AND SONG;
THO AFAR FROM THY CAMPUS REMOVED,
STILL OUR HEARTS SHALL FOR THEE EVER LONG.

CHORUS:
SWEET THY MEMORIES, THY FOND RECOLLECTIONS,
'TIS THE DEAR SCHOOL THAT GAVE US OUR WORTH;
HOW YOU HOLD, COLLEGE DEAR, OUR AFFECTIONS,
ALMA MATER, THE FAIREST ON EARTH!

MAY OUR COLORS, THE WHITE AND BLUE STREAMING,
OUR EMBLEMS OF LOVE AND OF TRUTH,
BE AS SUNLIGHT UPON OUR PATH BEAMING,
DEAR IN AGE AS THEY NOW ARE IN YOUTH.

O LAMBUTH, WHERE'ER LIFE MAY LEAD US,
IN SORROW, OR SUNSHINE, OR JOY,
THY MOTTO SHALL STILL BE OUR WATCHWORD,
THY PRAISES OUR TONGUES SHALL EMPLOY.

Lambuth's Best

DURING the month of January, Phi Alpha Mu sponsored a contest in the Student Body by which the ever-interesting question "who's who" was answered, at least for one year. Though "ole man depression" caused a shortage of funds and consequently a shortage of votes, it was generally thought that the votes cast were wisely placed and that the results truly expressed student sentiment.

The honored students and their respective titles follow:

SARAH SPANGLER . . . Best All 'Round Girl

ALMA SMITH Most Popular Girl

HAZEL WOMACK . Prettiest and Best Girl Athlete

BROOKS JONES Most Popular Boy

RAYMOND LEDBETTER . . Best All 'Round Boy

DAN EVANS Best Boy Athlete

DOUGLAS FERGUSON . . . Best Looking Boy

RUBY CAREY BROWN

Officers of the Student Body Organization

The year '32-'33 may be marked up as another successful milepost on the records of the Lambuth Student Body Organization. "Cy" Miller as President has proven his talents are not limited to the football field, the business has been effectively but briefly settled, the programs have been of real interest to every student. "Sally" Spangler has been an efficient Vice-President, as well as playin' for the singin'. And Ruby Carey Brown will go down in history as having asked fewer donations than any Secretary-Treasurer since the beginning of the organization.

To these three loyal officers the Student Body is truly grateful and appreciative of responsibility well-met.

A volunteer group was one of the first organizations to exist in Lambuth College. Although it was discontinued for a while, in the fall of 1931 it was reorganized, and has been one of the most efficient organizations in stimulating Christian ideals, and creating a deeper religious spirit among its members of any organization on the campus.

The Dramatic Club began the year with only thirteen members. During the fall quarter several try-outs found many freshmen worthy of membership.

The club has held interesting bi-monthly meetings, besides sponsoring several radio programs.

A play, "Here Come Three Knights," was presented during the winter quarter. A feature of the spring was the "big play" which was the culmination of the year's interest and endeavor.

NIGHT REVERIE

By EARLE HAWKINS

SO STILL, SO SOLITARY, WITH THE PALE SUMMER MOON FLOATING AMONG SILVERY CLOUDS AND THE FAR AWAY HILLS LOOMING SPHINX-LIKE IN THE DISTANCE. SO HUSHED, SO SILENT.

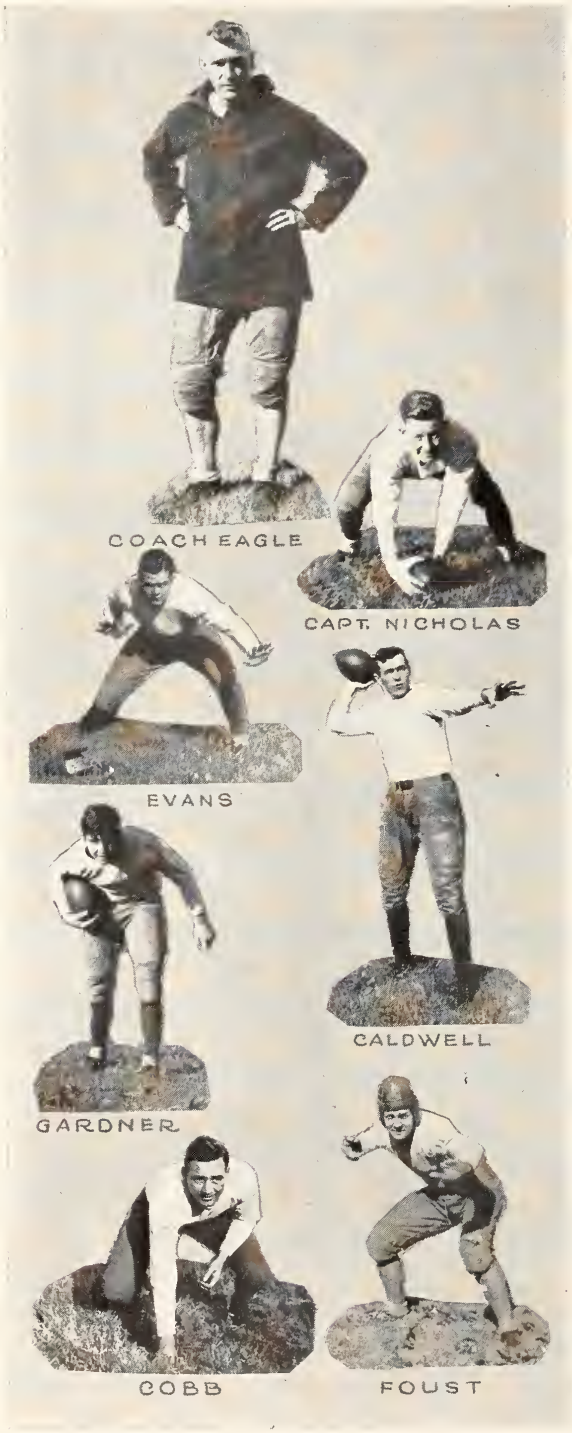

BROKEN IS THE DARKNESS—IS MY REVERY. THE SHRILL CALL OF A COCK RESOUNDS THROUGH PROFOUND SOLITUDE. IT ECHOES AND RE-ECHOES AMONG THE FAR AWAY HILLS. 'TIS ANSWERED. THEN SILENCE AGAIN, UNENDING SILENCE, DEEP.

SUDDENLY THE BAY OF A HOUND—HOW FAR IT RESOUNDS, HOW PENETRATING THROUGH THE PALE NIGHT, HOW LONELY! BUT NEVER IS THE CRY ANSWERED. SILENCE —UNBROKEN SILENCE REIGNS.

A BIRD NOW. OH, NO—NEVER—NEVER! BUT THE SONGSTER OF THE SOUL POURING FORTH HIS RAPTURED FLOOD OF MELODY UNTO THE MOON—AH, HOW HE SOARS! O BLESSED CREATURE, THY NOTES ARE THE RIPPLING MURMURS OF HEAVEN'S CELESTIAL STREAM, IN THE SILENCE, IN THE NIGHT. NOT A BIRD SURELY! BUT THE STRINGS OF MY HEART TOUCHED AND VIBRATED BY THE SUMMER'S BREEZE.

ATHLETICS

Coach Eagle

Nicholas
Captain and Center

"Nick" was all-Conference center, and what a center he was. Just 138 pounds of pure "guts" and fight.

Evans, Tackle

"Tough"—that fits "Lard." The kind of a man who begs the opposition to bring a play his way.

Caldwell, Quarter

Caldwell was a good field general and a nice side-stepper.

Gardner, Half

Gardner was a live smasher and a good defensive man. He always gave a good account of himself. He played the same good brand of football in every game.

Foust, Tackle

Foust gave all he had in every game and that was enough. Shoe-string tackles are his specialty.

Cobb, End

Cobb got his chance in an emergency and he put a stop to coach's end worries. He's the brainy type.

FOOTBALL

Oliver, End

A hard-working, dependable man who followed the coach's instructions perfectly.

Crumby, Guard, Tackle (or anywhere else)

Crumby's versatility helped us out of many tough spots. He's a fighter of the old school.

Hicks, Guard

When the referee got to the bottom of the pile, "Bloaty" was always there, with a man by the legs. A stone wall in the line.

Miller, Half

"Cy" was the only triple-threater on the team, a hard running back, good passer, fair punter, and a superb blocker and tackler. All-Conference second team, but many say he deserved better.

Kent, Half

Allan had never played football until this year, but he has the old natural ability. One of the best blockers on the team and a hard tackler.

Drummond, End

"Willie" never played in the orthodox fashion but he always got his man, even if he had to slap him down. Pass snagger de luxe.

Ferguson, Guard and Captain-elect

"Bloody" Ferg stopped 'em and how he stopped 'em. He should make a great leader.

Armstrong, Full

"Ace" Armie is the hardest hitting man for 165 pounds we have seen. His development into a star was rapid.

Girls' Basketball

Captain Hazel Womack—Forward—Hazel just couldn't miss this year. A sure member of the all-conference team. Womack was a capable leader for the team.

Sowell—Center—This big tall girl gave Lambuth what she needed, the tip-off. Sowell not only got the tip every time, but she was always good for her share of the baskets.

Fly—Guard—"Backy" is one of the smoothest guards to ever play here. You could always count on her to keep her opponent down to a low score.

Spangler—Guard—Sarah overcame one of the greatest difficulties to a basketball player—lack of height. She makes the game plenty peppy, with her speed and excellent guarding.

Matthews—Forward—"Izzy" gave the best floor performance of the year, covering all loose balls, exhibiting some great passwork, and occasionally flipping one through the net.

Girls' Basketball

GARRISON — Center, Guard, Forward, or what-have-you — Janette proved to be the most versatile player on the team. She always gave a good performance at any position.

O'NEAL—Guard—O'Neal handles herself on the hardwood with the precision and coolness of a veteran. Great on taking the ball off the back-board.

NORMAN—Guard—Mary was right there with what it takes. She made the opposing forwards look sick.

SWIFT—Forward—Another good forward prospect for next year. Swift is no slouch at center.

VARNELL—Forward—This little girl from Selmer should be plenty good with another year's college experience. She is an exceptionally good passer and a good shot.

Boys' Basketball

HALEY—Captain and Guard—Ham always covered his man and he could make goals consistently from near center. An inspiring leader who can't be replaced.

MATLOCK—Forward—Matlock came here with a great record and he lived up to it. One of the best cup shot artists to ever perform here.

KINCHEN—Forward—Kinchen hails from the same place as Matlock, Ramer, where they both made all-state high school team. He was poison on shots from the foul ring.

BATTS—Center—Batts, an all-district man from Kentucky, was great in every game, a good performer in every department of the game. He was high-point man for the season.

E. WINSLOW—Center and Forward—Winslow could always be counted on to open up the opposing team's defense with his beautiful long shots. A good dependable man.

EVANS—Guard—"Fat" got the ball off the back-board consistently, and was always in there fighting.

Boys' Basketball

W. Winslow—Forward—"Buddy" could shoot from any position in any position and he generally made some of his trick shots good when we needed points most.

Williams—Guard—Blake was the fastest man on the team, and he utilized his speed to keep his man well covered.

Kent—Guard—Old rough and tumble Allen who liked to mix it up down under the basket. Kent was pretty good on long shots.

Oliver—Guard—A consistent and sure player. Tiny's place in athletics will be hard to fill next year.

Ramer—Forward—A smooth, steady player who was especially good on snow birds. Ramer could be counted on for a few points in every game.

Lancaster—Guard—Red didn't have much of a chance to show his wares this year, but something tells us this boy will be a whiz next year.

Resume of Football

The Eagles of 1932 were not highly successful in the matter of games won and lost, but they had a good team and had the tough luck of being short of reserves. It was the same old story in practically every game; Lambuth would hold the opposing team down and probably be leading until the last quarter, then a host of fresh men would be rushed in against them, and after having played their hearts out in the first three quarters, they simply were too exhausted to stem the tide. The eleven starting men of their linup were just as good as any team they played, but these eleven hard-hitters couldn't do it all.

Looking at the season at another angle, it was highly successful. At every place the team visited, it was highly commended for the gentlemanliness of its players, on and off the field. Even the newspapers of the various towns they visited praised the team in glowing terms on the editorial page for the sportsmanship and clean play of its members. Although we like for our team to win games, and hate to see them lose, such tribute wipes out the sting of defeat. Coach Eagle will be forever remembered by all of the boys for his instilling into them the principles of fair play.

One of the most heart-breaking incidents of the season was the Thanksgiving game with Bethel. It was during the flu epidemic, and the bigger part of the team was out because of illness with the flu. But they took their invalids to Bethel and with four or five reserves who had never played a game before and gave the champions of M. V. C. a good battle. There were only two regular men on the team that day who hadn't suffered some with the flu. Then the Eagles lost a tough one to T. P. I., 13-9. After having U. T. Junior College 6-0 in the first half, the Eagles fell under the avalanche of three fresh teams, coming at intervals, and lost, 27-6.

The following men were awarded letters at the close of the season: Ed Nicholas, Captain and center; C. C. Miller, half; Jack Armstrong, full; Paul Gardner, half; Ben Edd Caldwell, quarter; Allan Kent, half; Wylie Drummond, Charlie Cobb, and Weldon Oliver, ends; Edwin Foust, Daniel Evans, and James Crumby, tackles; Douglas Ferguson and Jack Hicks, guards.

Baseball

The Eagles had a bunch of good baseball players in 1932, but they were all green. They had a fair season but should do much better with a little more experience. It is said that Coach Eagle likes baseball better than any other sport and he is a wonder for developing baseball stars out of perfectly raw material. Watch the Eagles in baseball in 1933.

The following men made letters in 1932: Bill O'Hara, catcher; Dick Piggott, Jack Armstrong and W. S. Evans, pitchers; Wylie Drummond, first base; Ben Edd Caldwell, second base; Paul Gardner, short stop; C. C. Miller, third base; Manley Wadsworth, Ben Mayes and Marvin Jones, outfielders. This same team will be with us in 1933 with a lot of new material and much is expected of it.

Tennis

Tennis is now at its height at Lambuth. For the past two years Lambuth's tennis teams have been hot, especially the boys' team. In 1932, C. C. Miller, Dick Piggot, Carl Robbins and Tom Sawyer composed about as good a tennis team as could be found in the M. V. C. This team took 'em down from all of the colleges nearby. The girls' tennis team was pretty good, figuring it on a percentage basis of games won and lost. It was composed of Isabelle Matthews, Janette Garrison, and Angie Sweatman.

The team of 1933 should be still better one because we now have an excellent coach in Dr. R. C. Bullock.

FEATURES

Trapped In The Frozen North; or,
Why Boys Leave Home

There had been a great deal of inClement weather lately. There was nothing to do but throw a big one, so all the boys got together in the hut and began a surprise party.

"It Simms to me that we need some girls," spoke up one of the boys.

"Let me get the one I've Ben Rushing," added still another.

"You don't have a car, and you know you can't cRawl her over."

"Oh, yeah! I can Walker."

Finally the boys got started; all the girls were brought and the party was under way. One of the boys and his girl were out on the lawn under the moon.

"Come a little closer, baby; stop Stal(vey)ing."

"Oh, the night is yet Young."

"Don't Marr the evening by giving me the cold shoulder."

"Oh no, you Cozart around too much."

"Ah, won't you Rawl those eyes like you used to?"

"I'm afraid you are shooting me a line of Bull(ock)."

"No I'm not."

"I don't believe you; stop making those approaches."

"Don't you have a heart?"

"Yes, but you've been looking for it long enough."

With Our Fraternities

Sigma Alpha, i. e., Sure Awful

Founded: By Mistake. Motto: "They shall not pass."

Requirements: Be of Caucasion Race. Flower: Tomato Juice (every morning).

All pledges are requested to stay drunk, because if they sober up and discover what frat they have pledged, they would leave school. After a thorough kind of examination of the bunch of eggs we humbly report that they are all spoiled and unfit for publication. The fact that they have been seen in the K Φ E room is description enough. About all these boys can claim is that they are members of the student body.

Kappa Phi Epsilon—Kind of Putrid Eggs

Founded by Agnes Ellen Harris and Mary Burke

Motto: Chastity First. Flower: Sour Grapes.

It is rumored that one of the members showed open signs of manhood and was ousted. On top of that, Earl Ramer left the daisies off the table at a Sunday afternoon meeting and threw the entire chapter into consternation. Order was restored by the announcement that the brothers had accepted a challenge from the Theta Psi's for a game of Drop-the-Handkerchief.

Theta Psi, i. e., Hebrew—No Translation.

Founded by Sears-Roebuck Mail Order Department

Motto: "Those seeking admittance shall enter." Flower: Hay Seed.

The original purpose of this organization was to increase the sales of Sears-Roebuck and Company's jewelry department. If you are in doubt about this, examine one of the brother's pins. Anyway, they can count on Haywood Smith to keep up the social side of the fraternity, as he is well acquainted with two men from other fraternities. They tell all their pledges they have only select men, but they don't tell them what they select from. It's a good thing the faculty is big-hearted or else this motley assembly of nonentities would be out of luck.

Tale of A "Prof"

In a large European city some years ago, a man was walking down the street in a dazed condition, talking incoherently, and making wild gestures. Evidently he was trying to make himself understood, but in some way he apparently had lost all his ability to control his faculties. He was taken to a famous hospital, and surgeons from all Europe gathered to examine his case. All agreed they had never seen a similar case; however, an operation was considered necessary. In the operating room it was decided that the brain should be removed and taken to the laboratory for special treatment. This was done; but when the doctors returned they found their patient missing. An intensive search failed to find him in the hospital. The search broadened; all Europe joined in the man-hunt. Finally the search was abandoned as useless. Years later he was discovered by a student at Lambuth College teaching his class.

Miss Cellaneous

We are all familiar with the old story of the absent-minded professor who poured molasses down his back and scratched his pancakes. We have one here in our midst that will soon rival that in popularity. There was once a lady who opened a closet door and fell two stories down a laundry chute. Of course, no names can be called, but she is the matron of the girls' dorm.

Quite a few girls are wearing jewelry their lovers gave them Christmas. About the middle of last November, Grady's held an auction sale.

There was a time when "teacher's pet" was a phrase, not a whole sentence.

Willie fell down the elevator;
It wasn't found out 'till three weeks later;
The people sniffed and said, "Gee whiz!"
What a spoiled child Willie is.

HOT WATER DISCOVERED IN EPWORTH HALL

As we go to press, it is rumored that hot water has been found in small quantities in Epworth Hall. One Sophomore, Earl Ramer, would fain have us to believe this. Oh! would that we could. The above-mentioned Ramer has stated that he will make oath to the effect that, while he was loitering around the face-washery (commonly called the sink), a small stream of water suddenly began flowing from the spigot, which had never been turned on before; and that it ran continuously for ten minutes without stopping. There may be something in this, but it doesn't sound straight to us. We can not help doubting dry-cleaning Ramer's statement, though we have always wondered what that particular set of spigots was for.

YOUR HEART AND MINE

By Dorothy Mix

Dear Miss Mix: I am just a poor student from the hills of Middle Tennessee trying to get through college. I have been having quite a time doing it, too. Every time me and my girl get together and settle down for some spooning, along comes some other guy and takes her away. The last guy who did this was from Hornbeak. He soon got tired of my girl and left, and then there were no other guys interested in her; so now she wants to come back to me. I would like to see her some more, but hate to take the risk of being interrupted again. Oh, Miss Mix, do not fail me in my hour of need! What shall I do?

Men Bayes.

Dearest Bayes: Your case is indeed a very sad one, and I hesitate to tell you what to do. Although you have changed your name slightly, I know thee well. I would advise you to borrow your roommate's model "A" and make an extended tour of the west.

Dorothy Mix.

LEARNING WHILE SERVING

From boyhood it was said of Abraham Lincoln that he was a "learner". In his ambition to post himself he sat at the feet of whoever could teach him. In time he overtopped them all.

The "learner" rises above his competitors in all life's activities. He masters conditions because he learns all about them.

We sit at the feet of the public wherever we have stores, learning and posting ourselves of the needs of home and person as best we can.

Diligently applying ourselves to the responsible task of providing those needed when needed is the virtue to which may be traced much of the extraordinary development of this company.

PROOF POSITIVE

Foust (months after marriage): "It seems to me, my dear, that these pancakes are rather heavy."

Donnie: "Then I'm afraid you're a poor judge, for the cookbook says they're light and feathery."
